

Spectator Code of Conduct

Spectators play a vital role in creating a positive, supportive, and respectful environment for all athletes, coaches, and officials. As a spectator at Town of Wellington events, I agree to uphold the following standards:

Commitment to Respect and Positive Behavior

As a spectator, I will:

- Encouraging my child to respect coaches, teammates, officials, opponents, and spectators.

- Applaud effort, improvement, and fair play.
- Refraining from using foul language, inappropriate gestures, or disrespectful behavior at any program event or facility.
- Allow coaches to coach and officials to officiate without interference - Zero Tolerance.
- It is important to recognize that coaches dedicate significant time and effort to the players and show appreciation for their work.
- Communicating any concerns constructively with coaches at an appropriate time and place (e.g., following a 24-hour cooldown period after a game or event).
- Any adult who observes or suspects child abuse is encouraged to report it to 1-844-CO-4-Kids or 911. Coaches, as Mandatory Reporters, are required to do so. If you see something, please say something and feel empowered to intervene and keep children safe. This includes actions that are physical, emotional, sexual, and neglectful abuse. You do not need eyewitness evidence to report.

To ensure a positive experience for all participants, I will:

- Remain at least two yards from the playing field or designated competition area.
- Refrain from coaching from the sidelines or distracting players during games.
- Respect officials' decisions and avoid arguments, criticism, or disruptive behavior.
